

Shashank Ahire

successfully participated in the programme

Promotion plus⁺ qualifiziert (PhD and beyond)

from October 2020 until June 2021.

The two semester programme conveys management and key competencies relevant to the job market and helps to identify career prospects outside academia. The consecutive courses comprise about 72 hours. In addition, Promotion plus⁺ supports participants in establishing professional networks with players in industry, the non-profit or the public sector in and around Hanover.
